CANCERCARE MANITOBA

Radiation Oncology Physics Residency

CancerCare Manitoba
ActionCancerManitoba

Join us in the fight against cancer

1 RESIDENT POSITION

Program start: September 1, 2027

Apply by Jan 6, 2027

TRAIN WITH AN EXPERIENCED TEAM

Work alongside 18 physicists and 21 radiation oncologists in a CAMPEP-accredited residency focused on clinical excellence, mentorship and hands-on learning.

CORE TRAINING AREAS

- Dosimetry
- External Beam Radiation Therapy
- Brachytherapy
- Stereotactic Radiosurgery

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

Applicants must have:

- An MSc or PhD in Medical Physics from a CAMPEP-accredited graduate program, or
- Completion of a CAMPEP-accredited certificate program.

Strong clinical commitment, interpersonal skills and teamwork are essential.

HOW TO APPLY

Our program is registered with the National Match Program

Institution #27311

1 Register for the match

natmatch.com/medphys/applicants/register.html

☐ Cover letter describing your interest in Radiation Oncology Physics
☐ Up-to-date curriculum vitae

2 Complete your application

Upload all required documents through the NATMATCH website.

☐ Undergraduate and graduate transcripts
☐ Three reference letters (at least one from your current academic advisor or supervisor)

APPLICATION DEADLINE — 5:00 PM MBT • WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 6, 2027

QUESTIONS?

Niranjan Venugopal, PhD, MCCPM | Program Director

nvenugopal@cancercare.mb.ca

For more information visit our webpage here:

Radiation Onoclogy Physics Residency at CancerCare Manitoba

Make a meaningful impact in Radiation Oncology Physics.
Join the CancerCare Manitoba team.